- The material is not so fragile that photocopying may damage it.
- All reproduction is done by staff. Copies may not be immediately available.
- Archival materials are copied for individual research projects only.
- Copies and scans are made at the researcher's expense. They are made as expeditiously as possible but as available staffing allows.
- The Diocese of Orlando retains ownership of scanned images. Digital images provided to researchers are not subject to loan and cannot be sold, licensed, or reused.
- Digital cameras are permitted, but please discuss with the Archivist before using.
- Provision of copies does not constitute permission to quote or publish them. Permission from the Archivist must be granted to quote or publish. Please see Policy for Quotation and Publication of Archival Material.
- The provision or purchase of copies, scans or digital images does not imply transfer of ownership to the individual nor does the Archives surrender its right to publish the material or to grant permission to others to do so.

Policy for Reproduction of Archival Materials

- The researcher assumes full responsibility for any infringement of copyright and for publications rights of reproduced materials. Reproductions may not be further duplicated for sale of or for subsequent use without specific agreement and the payment of any applicable fees.
