"I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me."

John 17:20,21

February 2018

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

How beautiful is the voice of God to invite us as one community to proclaim His goodness to each one throughout the earth! Christ always gives His Church the gift of unity, but the Church must always pray and work to maintain, reinforce, and perfect the unity that Christ wills for her.

God is ever faithful to us. As we break open the Word and come to union through, with and in the Eucharist, we bring from the table of the Lord to His holy people; our knowledge of the faith, our participation in God's cosmic liturgy, the rhythm of prayer, moral formation, our measure of history within God's time, and our care for each one, sacred as The Bread of Life.

You are God's light upon the earth. From your proclamation I pray that you will inspire all Catholics, from the youngest to the oldest, to know their faith and live their faith as God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit has called each of us to do. As you share the richness of our faith, may you also lead others to integrate our faith into our world. Thank you for opening the eyes of each other to see that the Word of God has much meaning for our lives today. Thank you for not hiding God's light under a bushel basket. May His Light shine forth in all that we are.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Diocese of Orlando extends gratitude and appreciation for the generosity of the Archdiocese of Seattle in sharing with us their exemplary work in developing these materials. They graciously allowed us to use these standards and concordant documents as needed in our diocese. In our effort to create similar standards, we found that their work was in harmony with the goals set forth by our curriculum committees. While the content of the catechism is consistent, what we needed was an organized framework that was thoughtful, comprehensive and useful for both parishes and schools. The work produced by the Archdiocese of Seattle answered those needs. The Archdiocese's willingness to share the fruits of years of effort demonstrates that, not only do they teach the faith effectively, but they live up to the highest calling of unity and fellowship.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE

Many people contributed to the development of the Religion Curriculum for the teachers and catechists of the Archdiocese of Seattle.

- Archbishop Sartain, who directed the Office for Catholic Schools to collaborate with the Office for Catholic Faith Formation to design and complete the revision of the 2002 document.
- Fr. Stephen Rowan who has inspired us with his tireless leadership and commitment to excellence in the Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Seattle.
- The committee members, who contributed their time, enthusiasm and expertise in the design, writing, reviewing and editing of this project. Through their work, we have all witnessed the love and passion for the ministry of teaching in a Catholic school. Truly, the teachers who daily witness to their faith are the cornerstone of our schools.
- All advisors for this project, their words of wisdom helped guide this process to completion.

Dear Catechists of the Diocese of Orlando!

All who teach the Catholic faith share the goal of forming intentional disciples. Words and actions reveal the Gospel to a world hungry for kindness, goodness, truth and justice. We are called to discover God's Kingdom, right here, right now. Our work with God's children challenges us to be our best selves in service to those in need. God called you to this task. He chose you for this moment and at this time.

Why have the Religion Standards been revised? Our standards were last reviewed in 2009; it is time to revisit the standards and ask ourselves, "Is this an accurate reflection of our faith? Does this meet the needs of teachers in classrooms and catechists in parish formation programs? Do we consider Religion as central and core to our instruction? Can we measure what children learn in Religion?" As catechists, our faith is the reason our schools are open for business and that our parishes offer religious instruction to children. To know the standards is the first step to intentionally teaching the faith; to understand the standards is to give you greater confidence and insight.

How have the Religion Standards been revised? The standards have been re-organized and aligned with the Six Tasks of Catechesis and the Pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Besides the new Framework, included is an updated glossary, grade level prayers, recommended Scripture, resources keyed to the Framework, unit template and sample unit plans. You will be able to more easily implement your curriculum and your creativity! The organizational framework aligns with the ACRE, which will make for more efficient use of that data.

What hasn't changed? The core of our faith, summarized in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, remains constant. Through head, heart and hands, we see, celebrate and live our faith! Those of you who have taught for a number of years will note that the thematic emphasis at each grade level will look familiar. The content has not changed; however, the way the content is structured and the method of delivery has.

Organization: Six Tasks of Catechesis

Anchored in the Catechism, the organization through the Six Tasks is not meant to be sequential. Rather, imagine a mobile with six moving parts. The parts move according to many factors within the school year: The Church calendar, the grade level emphasis, literature themes, even science/math experiments. Each experience in a classroom can be viewed through the lens of faith. The Six Tasks call us to provide:

- 1. Knowledge of the Faith*
- 2. Experience and love of the Liturgy*
- 3. Moral formation*
- 4. Prayer experiences as necessary in the rhythm of life*
- 5. Community and life of the Church, the history and our place in the Church's story*
- 6. Missionary zeal modeled and integrated in service to God's call for our lives!*

The Framework

We begin with the Six Tasks of Catechesis, and within each task we have created a Framework with Essential Concepts. The framework applies to each grade level. For instance, in Task 1 - Knowledge of the Faith, we teach all students about the Essential Concept of the Trinity. The depth at which we teach this concept varies as we consider the developmental stages and the grade level emphasis. Again, the standards have not changed. They are organized in a way that gives us more access to the “how” of our teaching.

Resources

- Glossary - Within the tasks, grade level vocabulary terms and key concepts are used. If a term is underlined in the standards, it is important for that particular grade level.
- Prayers – Embedded in the standards, we have updated the recommended grade level prayers, and we add prayer experiences to this list.
- Recommended Scripture citations – Scripture citations are keyed to the Framework and are also embedded in the standards document.
- Unit Template and Sample Unit Plans – The template gives the teacher a structure for developing unit plans that intentionally integrate the Faith. Sample units have been provided for teachers.

How to read the Standards:

- Standards describe the goals of schooling, the destinations at which students arrive at the end of the unit or term.
- The standard does not prescribe how to get the students to this destination – that is determined by the curriculum.
- Standards indicate what students should know and should be able to do at the different grade levels.
- Standards are the WHAT of education while curriculum and instruction are the HOW

THE SIX TASKS OF CATECHESIS AND THE RELIGION STANDARDS

Catechesis, the “echoing” or passing on of our Catholic faith is designed to form disciples of Jesus Christ. Jesus formed his disciples through instructing, celebrating, witnessing, praying, living in community with others, and sharing the Good News of the Kingdom of God. Thus, we too are called to share the richness of faith through diverse, yet interrelated tasks (cf. NDC pp.59-60)

The Six Tasks of Catechesis: Knowledge of the Faith; Liturgical Education; Moral Formation; Learning to Pray; Education for Community Life; and Missionary Discipleship and Service are distinct and also complementary. Each task helps us deepen our relationship with Christ. Knowing Jesus calls us to celebrate the relationship and also reminds us of the need for ongoing conversion, which leads to prayer, recognizing the needs of others, and realizing how we are called to share the Good News through word and deed.

The Six Tasks of Catechesis provide the framework for the Religion Standards. They offer us the broad strokes of faith formation that will be broken down in greater detail through the Essentials Concepts.

FRAMEWORK

This image illustrates all the important pieces of the Standards document. The Framework offers an organizational structure that incorporates the four pillars of the Catechism, that identifies a pedagogy that appeals to the whole person (head, heart, and hands), and that summarizes the full range of catechetical formation in the phrase, “see, celebrate, and live” the faith. The depth and understanding of the concepts grow over time.

National Directory for Catechesis, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2005.

The object of catechesis is communion with Jesus Christ. Catechesis leads people to enter the mystery of Christ, to encounter him, and to discover themselves and the meaning of their lives in him"

(NDC, p. 55)

ESSENTIAL CONCEPTS ACROSS THE GRADE LEVELS

The grade level standards are now placed into a pre-kindergarten to eighth grade view, arranged by Essential Concept. As teachers study this view, through thoughtful reflection each begins to understand the importance of a particular grade level within the context of the school's entire religion curriculum. Additionally, the number of standards reveals the grade level emphasis.

How the Essential Concepts are organized

Example: PK-KF-R1

(PK) refers to Grade Level: i.e. PK=Pre-Kindergarten, K=Kindergarten, 1=Grade 1, etc.

(KF) refers to the Six Tasks of Catechesis:

1. Knowledge of the Faith (KF)
2. Liturgical Education (LE)
3. Moral Education (ME)
4. Teaching to Pray (TP)
5. Educating for the Life, Community and History of the Church (LCH)
6. The Church's Missionary Life and Service (CMLS)

(R) Refers the Essential Concept, i.e. R=Revelation

GRADE LEVEL STANDARDS

GRADE LEVEL STANDARDS

Standards describe the goals of schooling, the destinations at which students arrive at the end of the unit or the term. The standard does not prescribe how to get the students to this destination – that is determined by the curriculum within each school and every classroom. Standards are the WHAT of education while curriculum and instruction are the HOW.

Standards are tied to the Six Tasks of Catechesis. Therefore, it will be much easier for teachers to assess students because lessons will be developed that are tied to the tasks. In addition, an end of year assessment will be developed for each grade level.

How the standards are encoded

Example: PK-KF-R1

(PK) refers to Grade Level: i.e. PK=Pre-Kindergarten, K=Kindergarten, 1=Grade 1, etc.

(KF) refers to the Six Tasks of Catechesis:

1. Knowledge of the Faith (KF)
2. Liturgical Education (LE)
3. Moral Education (ME)
4. Teaching to Pray (TP)
5. Educating for the Life, Community and History of the Church (LCH)
6. The Church's Missionary Life and Service (CMLS)

(R) Refers the Essential Concept, i.e. R=Revelation
Essential Concepts listed on pg. xxx

(1) Numbers in parentheses refer to teachings found in the Catechism of Catholic Church (CCC), refer to pg. xxx

Liturgy of the Word	2	The first main part of the Mass in which we hear the Word of God in the Scriptures. (CCC #1103, 1154, 1346, 1349, 2183) On Sundays and solemnities, there are three Scripture readings. During most of the year, the first reading is from the Old Testament and the second reading is from one of the New Testament letters. The last reading is always taken from one of the four Gospels. The Responsorial Psalm is sung between the readings helping us to meditate on the word of God. The high point of the Liturgy of the Word is the reading of the Gospel, telling us of the life, ministry, and preaching of Christ. The gathered assembly stands to hear the Gospel and it is introduced by an acclamation of praise. After the Scripture readings, the celebrant preaches the homily focusing on the Scripture texts or some other texts from the liturgy, drawing from the lessons that may help us to live better lives, more faithful to Christ's call to grow in holiness. In many Masses, the Profession of Faith then follows the homily, either the Nicene or Apostles' Creed. (USCCB)
Long suffering	4	One of the 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit (CCC #1832).

The focus of the New Evangelization calls all Catholics to be evangelized and then go forth to evangelize. In a special way, the New Evangelization is focused on 're-proposing' the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith. Pope Benedict XVI called for the re-proposing of the Gospel "to those regions awaiting the first evangelization and to those regions where the roots of Christianity are deep but who have experienced a serious crisis of faith due to secularization." The New Evangelization invites each Catholic to renew their relationship with Jesus Christ and his Church. (USCCB)

Object, intention	4	The object chosen is a good toward which the will deliberately directs itself. It is the matter of a human act. The object chosen morally specifies the act of the will, insofar as reason recognizes and judges it to be or not to be in conformity with the true good. Objective norms of morality express the rational order of good and evil, attested to by conscience. (CCC #1751, 1794) In contrast to the object, the intention resides in the acting subject. Because it lies at the voluntary source of an action and determines it by its end, intention is an element essential to the moral evaluation of an action. The end is the first goal of the intention and indicates the purpose pursued in the action. The intention is a movement of the will toward the end: It is concerned with the goal of the activity. It aims at the good anticipated from the action undertaken. Intention is not limited to directing individual actions, but can guide several actions toward one and the same purpose; it can orient one's whole life toward its ultimate end. For example, a service done with the end of helping one's neighbor can at the same time be inspired by the love of God as the ultimate end of all our actions. One and the same action can also be inspired by several intentions, such as performing a service in order to obtain a favor or to boast about it. (CCC #1752, 2520, 1731)
Offering of the Gifts	2	The Roman Missal refers to the "carrying up of the gifts" as a rite in itself - it "continues the spiritual value and meaning of the ancient custom when people brought bread and wine for the liturgy for their homes." (USCCB)

Ordinary Time	4	Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. (USCCB> Prayer and Worship)
Original Sin	4	The sin by which the first human beings disobeyed the commandment of God, choosing to follow their own will rather than God's will. As a consequence, they lost the grace of original holiness, and became subject to the law of death; sin became universally present in the world. Besides the personal sin of Adam and Eve, original sin describes the fallen state of human nature which affects every person born into the world, and from which Christ, the "new Adam," came to redeem us. (CCC #396-412) Effects of Original Sin: Loss of God's friendship (grace), damage to the harmony between body, intellect and will, reduced ability to love one another unselfishly, experience of shame, confusion about the nature and purpose of the human body, being subject to other temptations to sin and to concupiscence, death. (Page 4 of the Catechetical Formation and Chaste Living, 2008)

The first three - the sanctification of his Name, the coming of his Kingdom, and the fulfillment of his will. Our Lady of Guadalupe	All	Official Catholic accounts state that on the morning of December 9, 1531, Juan Diego saw an apparition of a young girl at the Hill of Tepeyac, near Mexico City. Speaking to him in Nahuatl, the girl asked that a church be built at that site in her honor; from her words, Juan Diego recognized the girl as the Virgin Mary. Diego told his story to the Spanish Archbishop of Mexico City, Fray Juan de Zumárraga, who instructed him to return to Tepeyac Hill, and ask the "lady" for a miraculous sign to prove her identity. The first sign was the Virgin healing Juan's uncle. The Virgin told Juan Diego to gather flowers from the top of Tepeyac Hill. Although December was very late in the growing season for flowers to bloom, Juan Diego found Castilian roses, not native to Mexico, on the normally barren hilltop. The Virgin arranged these in his peasant cloak or tilma. When Juan Diego opened his cloak before Bishop Zumárraga on December 12, the flowers fell to the floor, and on the fabric was the image of the Virgin of Guadalupe
Our Lady of Lourdes	All	Our Lady of Lourdes is a title of the Blessed Virgin Mary invoked by Roman Catholics in honor of the Marian apparitions said to have occurred on numerous occasions in 1858 in the vicinity of Lourdes, France. The first of these is the apparition of 11 February 1858, when Bernadette Soubirous, a 14-year-old peasant girl, admitted to her mother that a "lady" spoke to her in the cave of Massabielle (a mile from the town) while she was gathering firewood with her sister and a friend. Similar appearances of the "lady" were reported on seventeen further occasions that year

Above all, the paschal candle should be a genuine candle, the pre-eminent symbol of the light of Christ. (USCCB)

(CCC #571, 1362-1372, 1067, 1076; 1362-1372)
Passover	4	Jesus' saving death and its memorial in the Eucharist, associated with the Jewish feast of Passover (or Pasch) commemorating the deliverance of the Jewish people from death by the blood of the lamb sprinkled on the doorposts in Egypt, which the angel of death saw and "passed over." The Eucharist celebrates the new Passover, in which Jesus "passes over" to his Father by his death and resurrection, thus anticipating the final Passover of the Church in the glory of the kingdom. (CCC #571, 608, 1334-1340)

Stewardship	2	Responsibility for caring for and protecting God's creation and God's people
Stewardship Equation	7	Receive, Cultivate, Share and Return. We receive our gifts from God, we are called to cultivate those gifts so that we may share them with the world and in so doing, we return our gifts to God
Subsidiarity	7	The principle that states a community of a higher order should not interfere in the internal life of a community of a lower order, depriving the latter of its functions, but rather should support it in case of need and help to co-ordinate its activity with the activities of the rest of society, always with a view to the common good. (CCC #1883)
Synoptic	7	Similar in content and structure as in "synoptic Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke"

RELIGION STANDARDS IMPORTANT TERMS

TERMS	GRADE LEVEL Introduced	DEFINITION
Tabernacle	1	The respectable in the church in which the consecrated Eucharist is reserved for communion for the sick and dying. Reservation of the Eucharist in the tabernacle lends itself to private devotional visits and adoration of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament by the faithful. (CCC #1183, 1379)
Temperance	4	One of the moral Cardinal Virtues that moderates the attraction of pleasure and provides balance in the use of created goods. It ensures the mastery of the will over instinct, and keeps natural desires within proper limits. (CCC #1809)
Temple of the Holy Spirit	4	The Church is call the temple of the Holy Spirit because the Holy Spirit resides in the body which is the Church, in her Head and in her members. He also builds up the Church in charity by the Word of God, the sacraments, the virtues and charisms. (CCC #809-810)
Temptation	2	An attraction, either from outside oneself or from within, to act contrary to right reason and the commandments of God. Jesus himself during his life on earth was tempted, put to the test, to manifest both the opposition between himself and the devil and the triumph of his saving work over Satan. (CCC #538)
Ten Commandments	1	God's law about loving God and others. (CCC #2058, 2067)
Theological Virtues	4	Three spiritual qualities - faith, hope and charity - that come from God and help us become more holy. (CCC #1812-1813)
Torah	4	The Pentateuch (Greek for "five books") designates the first five books of the Jewish and Christian Bible (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy). Jewish tradition calls the five books Torah (Teaching, Law) because of the centrality of the Sinai covenant and legislation mediated through Moses. (See USCCB>Bible>The Pentateuch)
Tradition of the Church	All	The living transmission of the message of the Gospel in the Church. The oral preaching of the Apostles, and the written message of salvation under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit (Bible), are conserved and handed on as the deposit of faith through the apostolic succession in the Church. Both the living Tradition and the written Scriptures have their common source in the revelation of God in Jesus Christ. The theological, liturgical, disciplinary, and devotional traditions of the local churches both contain and can be distinguished from this apostolic Tradition. (CCC #75-83)
Transfiguration	3	The mysterious event in which Jesus, seen speaking with Moses and Elijah on the mountain, was transformed in appearance - in the sight of Peter, James, and John - as a moment of disclosure of his divine glory. (CCC #554)
Transcendent	8	Of God, existing apart from and not subject to the limitations of the material universe
Transubstantiation	8	The scholastic term used to designate the unique change of the Eucharistic bread and wine into the body and Blood of Christ. "Transubstantiation" indicates that through the consecration of the bread and wine there occurs the change of the entire substance of the bread into the substance of the Body of Christ, and the entire substance of the wine into the blood of Christ - even though the appearances or "species" of bread and wine remain. (CCC #1376)
Triduum	4	A liturgical celebration of three days duration, as in the Easter Triduum. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday - these three days celebrate Jesus' passion, death and Resurrection. (CCC #1168)
Trinity	1	The mystery of one God in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The revealed truth of the Holy Trinity is at the very root of the Church's living faith as expressed in the Creed. The mystery of the Trinity in itself is inaccessible to the human mind and is the object of faith only because it was revealed by Jesus Christ, the divine Son of the eternal Father. (CCC #232, 237, 249, 253-256)
Trinity Sunday	4	Feast celebrated a week after Pentecost Sunday in honor of the Trinity, our core Christian belief
Typology	5	Typology indicates the dynamic movement toward the fulfillment of the divine plan when "God will be everything to everyone. As an old saying put it, the New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New." (CCC #129, 130)

RELIGION STANDARDS IMPORTANT TERMS

TERMS	GRADE LEVEL Introduced	DEFINITION
Universal Church	5	The Church is universal because it is sent by the risen Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit to proclaim the Good News throughout the world to each person and "to unite in one eucharistic fellowship men and women of every race, culture, and social condition in every generation." (CCC #34.) The Eucharist actualizes and expresses the Church's unity across time and space since those who share in it have "one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all" (Ephesians 4.5-6a)
Venial Sin	2	Sin which does not destroy the divine life in the soul, as does mortal sin, though it diminishes and wounds it. Venial sin is the failure to observe necessary moderation, in lesser matters of the moral law, or in grave matters acting without full knowledge or complete consent. (CCC #1855, 1862)
Vespers		A service of evening prayer in the Divine Office
Vessels, Sacred	2	Items used in service of the Liturgy, e.g. chalice, ciborium, vestment
Vestments	2	One of the articles of the ceremonial attire and insignia worn by ecclesiastical officiants and assistants as indicative of their rank and appropriate to the rite being celebrated; a sacramental
Viaticum	5	The Eucharist received by a dying person. It is the spiritual food for one's "passing over" to the Father from this world. With Penance and the Anointing of the Sick, the reception of Holy Communion as Viaticum constitute the "last sacraments" of the Christian. (CCC #1524)
Virtue	2	An habitual and firm disposition to do the good. The moral virtues are acquired through human effort aided by God's grace; the theological virtues are gifts of God. (CCC #1803)
Visit the Sick	4	One of the Seven Corporal Works of Mercy (CCC #2447)
Vocation	1	The calling or destiny we have in this life and hereafter. God has created the human person to love and serve him, the fulfillment of this vocation is eternal happiness. Christ calls the faithful to the perfection of holiness. The vocation of the laity consists in seeking the kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and directing them according to God's will. Priestly and religious vocations are dedicated to the service of the Church as the universal sacrament of salvation. (CCC #1, 358, 1700, 825)
Wisdom	4	A spiritual gift which enables one to know the purpose and plan of God; one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit (CCC #1831). Wisdom is also the name of one of the books of the Old Testament. (CCC #120)
Wisdom Books of the Old Testament	6	Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon, Wisdom, Sirach/Ecclesiasticus
Word of God	All	The entire content of revelation as contained in the Holy Bible and proclaimed in the Church. In John's Gospel, God's "Word" means his only-begotten Son, who is the fullness of God's revelation and who took flesh (the Word incarnate) and became man for the sake of our salvation. (CCC #65, 81, 101, 241, 461; cf. 2653)
Works of Mercy	4	Charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead. Among all these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: It is also a work of justice pleasing to God. (CCC #1460, 1038, 1969, 1004)
Worship	All	Adoration and honor given to God, which is the first act of the virtue of religion. (CCC #2096) Public worship is given to God in the Church by the celebration of the Paschal Mystery of Christ in the liturgy. (CCC #1067)
Yahweh	6	Another name for God that means "I am who am." (CCC #205-206)

SCRIPTURE REFERENCES

In this section, we offer Scripture references for each grade level to help teachers and students understand the Essential Concept being taught at each level. This section also indicates how the Scriptural reference may be used to accomplish one of the Six Tasks of Catechesis. For example, using a verse from Exodus, pre-kindergarten, kindergarten and first graders listen to the story of God who feeds His people with quail and manna. The scripture is cited in relation to two Tasks of Catechesis, helping students to begin to understand:

- Task 1 - Knowledge of the Faith – the revelation of God’s loving care from the beginning of time.
- Task 2- Liturgical Education – the connection of the people in the desert and our experience of Eucharist.

A Scriptural reference may also be offered as a point of reflection and prayer.

A final summary document is offered to display all the recommended Scripture across the grade levels.

GRADE LEVEL PRAYERS

The prayers have been listed by grade levels, and students are required to learn these prayers “by heart.” We avoid the word “memorized” as this word implies an academic approach. The selected prayers are the “go-to” prayers for many devotions.

New to this revision, we have included prayers to experience, and an emphasis on Mass Responses.

GRADE LEVEL PRAYERS

Titles	GRADE LEVEL Introduced	Prayers
The Sign of the Cross	PK	In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
	PK	Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day, be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.
Grace before Meals	K	Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive from thy bounty, through Christ our Lord, Amen.
Grace after Meals (optional)	K	We give thee thanks, for all thy benefits, Almighty God, who lives and reigns forever. (And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.) Amen.
Our Father	1	Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.
Hail Mary	1	Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
Glory Be / Doxology (Rosary)	1	Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
Glory Be / Doxology (Liturgy of the Hours)	2	Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. Alleluia (Alleluia omitted during Lent.)
Prayer at Stations of the Cross	2	We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, because by your holy Cross you redeemed the world.
Morning Offering	2	O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation for sins, the reunion of all Christians, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father this month. Amen.
Act of Contrition (from the Rite of Penance)	2	My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.
Act of Contrition	Optional	O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.
Gloria	2	Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
The Apostles' Creed	3	I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting Amen.

Titles	GRADE LEVEL Introduced	Prayers
The Nicene Creed (Recite communally)	3	I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
Come Holy Spirit	3	Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.
	4	Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Prayer for Peace)	4	Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Help me respond to the slightest prompting of your grace so that I may be your trustworthy instrument for your honor. May your will be done in time and in eternity by me, in me, and through me. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen	7	Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us O holy mother of God, that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.
