"Behold the servant of the Lord, let it be done to me according to your Word"
(Luke 1,38)

"Jesus calls with a love, a love capable of satisfying, of quenching the most intimate hunger and thirst of the human heart...yes, he calls in love because the Father has created us so that one day, at one historic moment of our life, while we are fishing beside the ocean of our realities of life, we might hear Jesus' voice speak to our hearts: "Come, leave everything, and follow me..."" (Mother Adela Galindo, Foundress SCTJM)

November 11-14, 2016

at Nazareth House Retreat Center

Served by SCTJM in the Catholic Diocese of Peoria

Placing our Marian charism and feminine genius in communion and at the service of the Petrine principle."*
