

PREPARING YOUR CATHOLIC LEGACY

You are invited to our Catholic Legacy seminar series. They are open to parishioners of all ages, caregivers, and care receivers. Seating is limited, so please RSVP to the parish office hosting the seminar that you wish to attend.

More seminars are in the works for this Spring, so please stay tuned to future announcements or check the diocesan calendar:

Some of these seminars will cover:

- Wills & Estate Planning - Important documents like a Will and Power of Attorney are not just for the wealthy or older generation. You should have these documents and other important plans made for yourself and your family. If you or your family don't have a plan, the State of Florida will make decisions for you.
- Catholic Medical Care - Understand Catholic practice and teachings on medical care. Detailed information is provided on when nutrition and hydration is a benefit or a burden to your loved ones. Information on hospice care is also provided.
- Senior Living Options - Understand the different types from temporary to permanent, levels of care, when to start considering the move and financial considerations.
